The screenshot displays the TeamViewer application window. The main interface is split into two primary sections: 'Remote Control' and 'Meeting'. The 'Remote Control' section is active, showing the user's ID as '279 652 651' and a password of '8962'. It also includes a field for a personal password and a 'Connect to partner' button. The 'Meeting' section is currently inactive. A sidebar on the right, titled 'Computers & Contacts', features a green arrow pointing to a 'Sign Up' button and a 'Sign In' link. Below these, it lists benefits like managing computers, checking contact status, and exchanging messages. A 'Computers & Contacts' window is also visible in the background of the sidebar.
